

Job Description: Guitar Teacher

Position Overview:

The Guitar Teacher will provide comprehensive guitar instruction to students, fostering their technical skills and artistic expression. The role involves creating lesson plans tailored to individual needs and encouraging a lifelong appreciation for music.

Key Responsibilities:

Instruction and Curriculum Development:

1. Teach guitar techniques, music theory, and repertoire across various styles, such as classical, acoustic, and electric.
2. Customize lessons to accommodate beginner, intermediate, and advanced students.
3. Integrate ear training, improvisation, and composition into lessons as appropriate.

Student Development:

1. Motivate students to practice regularly and set achievable goals.
2. Prepare students for recitals, auditions, and ensemble participation.
3. Foster a positive and encouraging learning environment to build confidence and skill.

Administrative Duties:

1. Maintain records of student progress and lesson plans.
2. Communicate with parents/guardians about achievements and areas for growth.
3. Manage scheduling and billing for lessons, if applicable.

Qualifications:

1. Proficiency in guitar performance and teaching.
2. Bachelor's degree in Music, Music Education, or a related field (preferred).
3. Experience teaching students of varying ages and skill levels.
4. Excellent communication and motivational skills.
5. Passion for music education and fostering students' growth.

Work Environment:

- Lessons may be conducted in-person, online, or both.
- Flexible hours, including evenings and weekends, based on student availability.
